

Residential Support Worker Fulltime Day and Relief positions

The Anne Sullivan Centre (ASC) located on Brewery Road, Stillorgan, Co Dublin, currently provides residential, day and outreach support to people who are deafblind throughout Ireland. We are a small organisation providing intensive professional care to individuals who are experiencing significant multi-sensory challenges. This necessitates a high level of specialised staff engagement with individuals who often have extremely complex needs and experiences. We continue Anne Sullivan's legacy by empowering people who are deafblind to pursue meaningful, active and fulfilling lives. We do this by providing care, advocacy and support services, in partnership with people who are deafblind, their families, statutory and non-statutory organisations and local communities.
