

Business Development Apprentice

Boost Beauty Solutions Ltd (Juliette Armand)

Boost Beauty Solutions is Ireland's distributor for the advanced skincare range 'Juliette Armand', a complete high end professional line of cosmetics.

The Juliette Armand Skincare range is based on innovative ingredients and technology that offers targeted skin solutions for all skin types and can treat a wide variety of skin problems and concerns. What's more, ALL Juliette Armand product ranges do not contain chemical nasties. They are all Parabens free, mineral oil free, propylene glycol free, silicon free and allergen free ensuring that you and your skin are in the best possible care. In a nutshell Juliette Armand offers high quality personalized professional skincare at a highly competitive price point.

Juliette Armand is already in over 40 countries worldwide and due to huge popularity and expansion in Ireland we have a fantastic opportunity to take a recently qualified beauty therapist to work alongside our Business Development Director to train in all aspects of the business, predominately in training and social media but also in sales & marketing. The successful candidate must be a qualified Beauty or Aesthetic therapist with excellent knowledge of skincare and passion for the beauty industry. This is a fabulous opportunity to work in a rapidly expanding company that offers fab perks, continuous training and career development.

- Flexible work environment
- Permanent Part-time role with potential to grow to Full Time Role depending on performance
- Excellent perks including complimentary product and high commission
- Driven by your ambition and own results
- Resilient, confident, and tenacious with an engaging personality
- Ability to speak to a varied range of people and decision makers at different levels of the business
- Ability to show initiative, be a self-starter, eager to learn from our super Business Development Director
- Target driven and ability to work on one's own initiative and as part of a team
- Excellent communication skills
- Ambitious, energetic and personable
- You will be required to maximise customer retention with all your clients through strong customer service and up-sell where appropriate.
- Strong customer focus
- Positive 'can do' attitude: enjoy hitting targets.
- Strong time management and organisational skills.

If interested please email marsha@boostbeauty.ie with a cover letter and your CV